All the pages of the bid proposal should be submitted in hard copy, duly signed by the authorized official of the bidder on each page. Bidder's confirmation for acceptance of Election

Department's terms and conditions, eligibility & evaluation criteria shall be categorical and the commercial bid shall not contradict the technical bid in any manner. Violation of these requirement will disqualify the bidder.

2. Background:

The Election Commission of India had started the scheme - issuing EPICs (Electors' photo identity card) to the electors in the year 1993 with an objective to ensure easy identification of the electors at the time of voting. Comprehensive guidelines were issued by the Commission for this purpose in May 2000. In view of the major advances in technology in the last 12 years, the Commission has issued fresh directions to ensure better quality cards with stricter security features. As per these fresh guidelines, the EPIC will now be printed on PVC sheet with prescribed specifications, security features and personalisation details. The EPIC will carry colour photograph of the elector. The photographs of the electors on new cards should be in sharp focus, of high quality, showing natural skin tones and clearly recognizable features. In Jharkhand there are approximately 4,00,000 electors for whom the EPICs are to be prepared immediately and every year about 5-6 lakh new electors may be added to the voter list and old voters may also seek replacement of their old cards on payment of prescribed fees, apart from issue of EPIC due to correction of entries.

3. Scope of the Work

The bidder shall supply EPICs (Electors photo Identity cards) for approximately 4,00,000 voters distributed across 81 assembly constituencies. The EPICs shall be supplied with prescribed security features and personalization details printed upon them as given in the paras 5 & 6 below. It shall be the responsibility of the bidder to procure blank pre-printed cards of prescribed specifications directly from card manufacturers with/without security features. The EPIC cards must be printed with security features and personalization details, inserted inside an envelop of leather / synthetic leather (print material), and then packed electoral roll part wise (polling station wise) and AC (Assembly Constituency) wise. It means to say that the package box of EPICs for a particular AC shall contain sub-packages of all the polling stations located inside that AC. The packing will be done in a manner and with material as directed by the CEO, Jharkhand. The bidder shall deliver the EPIC cards to District Election Officer of the concerned district and the bid price should include all costs

F.O.R. at each DEO Office along with a list of booths and AC wise list of cards supplied.

4. Stipulated time for completion of the work

The successful bidder would be required to complete the allocated volume of the work including transportation and delivery of the EPICs to the DEOs within 15 days from the date of supply of data initially. Thereafter the bidder would be required to access the ERMS data on 15th of each month for new voters requiring EPICs and shall supply to the concerned DEOs, the new EPICs by first of the next month on a regular basis & within stipulated time during special programs such as NVD / Special Summary Revision etc. He shall be required to get the list of such new EPICs authenticated from the Office of the CEO, Jharkhand every month on 15th day thereof. This shall subject to any other time frame as may be laid down by the CEO, Jharkhand.

The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Jharkhand shall make available to the service provider the personalization data. The data will be with photo files (linked to individual data record). The data will be shared in a secured manner. Vendor shall keep informed the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Jharkhand of the progress, on EPICs' delivery by online MIS, on daily basis. Besides, the successful bidder would establish an office in Ranchi for regular liaison with CEO and DEO offices with competent staffs and other facilities. The work of printing should preferably be carried out at a location located in Jharkhand which shall be subject to inspection by officers of CEO Office, Jharkhand.
